

Join ACTA at the Joint Congress of the Arts

June 7th and 8th, 2001 Sacramento

For more information contact the California Assembly of Local Arts Agencies: 415-441-5900 or www.calaa.net

Join 1000 arts leaders from every field from all over the state at the largest gathering of arts. Ever! Be part of the first Joint Congress to be held in two decades!

Attend the ACTA meeting for Folk & Traditional Arts constituents on June 8 to discuss the most pressing issues of our field.

The Joint Congress will focus on creating an awareness of the value and importance of the California arts community and the potential advantages and benefits of its shared strength of numbers.

Meet with legislators and government agency leaders both to educate and to inform them of local arts impact and to inquire and learn of existent government programs that may afford opportunities for participation and funding to arts organizations.

Participate in the California Interactive Arts Survey, which will poll attendees on priorities for the arts community, needs as perceived by the attending constituent groups, and issues facing the arts. Attendees will be able to instantly view survey results.

Or contact us at ACTA to learn more about the traditional arts agenda at the Congress!
559-237-9813
www.actaonline.org